County May Adopt Same Tax Millage

Preliminary figures for the 1953 county budget call for keeping the same tax rate as last year—11 mills total.

That was shown in the 'rough' or working figures turned over to commissioners by Chief Clerk Harry Taylor yesterday.

Commissioners last night were breaking down and studying these preliminary figures in preparation for a budget session today.

The figures may be revised up or down or left as they are, before the budget is finally approved, Board Chairman Amzi F. Altomose pointed out last night.

On the basis of the working figures, this is what the county budget is likely to be this year:

The tax rate is estimated at eight mills for the general government and three mills for institution district.

Total receipts and cash of $295,973.46 in the general government budget are estimated, and expenses of $267,020.

Institution district cash and receipts are figured at $110,010.86 and expenses at $96,550.

Here's how the estimates of receipts are figured in the general government budget summary:

Cash balance on hand at the start of the year, $83,834.73; receipts from this year's taxes, $180,288.73; taxes from prior years, $18,300; fines and forfeits, $4,000; income from interest and rent, $300; and departmental earnings, $7,250. Total revenue receipts, $210,138.73. Non-revenue receipts are estimated as $2,000. Total cash, revenue and non-revenue receipts, $295,973.46.

Summary of expenses in the general government budget show the following sums estimated for operation and maintenance:

Administration, $92,825; judicial expenses, $49,880; corrections expenses, $46,515; and miscellaneous, $43,800; total, $233,020.

Capital outlay estimate is a big one—$34,000—with most of it going to pay for the county's new voting machines and about $3,000 going for purchase of photo-duplicating machinery for the recorder's office in the courthouse.

Total estimated expenses, $267,020, with an unappropriated balance of $28,953.46.

Summary of Institution District estimated receipts shows a balance of $39,389.98 at the beginning of the year. Receipts from current taxes, $54,720.88; receipts of taxes from prior years, $6,000; expenses of inmates refunded by other districts, $500; expenses of inmates paid by individuals, $6,000; sale of farm and garden products produced at the county farm, $3,000; other revenue receipts, $100; total estimated revenue receipts, $70,320.88. Total receipts and cash, $110,010.86.

Under a summary of expenses, the rough budget shows the biggest outlay for child welfare—a $33,800 item.

Expenses are: for general administration, $13,600; county home expenses, $31,475; county farm, $7,150; General Hospital appropriation, $2,500; other forms of care for adults and family groups, $5,300; child welfare, $33,800; capital outlay—including a new stainless-steel washing machine for the county home—$2,500; miscellaneous, $225. Total expenses, $96,550. Unappropriated balance, $13,460.

N. A. Rockefeller Named To Post

Washington, (AP)—Nelson A. Rockefeller, 44-year-old multi-millionaire, was nominated by President Eisenhower yesterday to be the undersecretary of health, education and welfare.

Rockefeller, if confirmed by the Senate, will fill a post created by Congress recently when it raised the sprawling Federal Security Agency to the rank of a full-fledged department with Cabinet status.

Stroudsburg Homes Boast More Modern Comforts Than Most Communities In U.S.

(Special to The Daily Record)
New York — The average dwelling in Stroudsburg is in better condition and contains more of the modern comforts of home than do houses in most parts of the country.

This is shown in data now being released by the U.S. Department of Commerce, based on its 1950 Census of Housing.

Central heating systems were found in nearly 87 per cent of Stroudsburg's homes. This compares favorably with conditions generally throughout the United States, where only 50 per cent of the dwellings can boast of central heating facilities. For Pennsylvania at large, 75 per cent of the homes are so equipped.

South Korea To Continue Boycott Of Truce Talks If Allies Don't Alter Proposal

Seoul, (AP)—South Korea notified the U. N. Command yesterday it would continue to boycott the truce talks unless the Allies withdraw or change their latest proposal.

President Syngman Rhee's government transmitted its formal rejection of the proposal in a letter from Maj. Gen. Choi Duk Shin to Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr.

Choi, South Korean member of the Allied truce delegation, handed the letter to Harrison late Thursday at Munsan and returned to Seoul.

Choi boycotted the last truce meeting Monday in a move unprecedented in almost two years of negotiations.

The talks resume next Monday. Choi's threat to continue the boycott came amid a chorus of angry denunciations of the new Allied stand from leaders of the Rhee government.

There even were threats that South Korean armies would keep on fighting if the secret Allied plan is approved.

In an atmosphere of crisis, U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs hurried here from the provincial capital at Pusan and talked with President Syngman Rhee, apparently to calm Korean tempers.

At Pusan, South Korea's foreign minister accused the Eisenhower administration of "appeasement" and declared U. S. policy would "inevitably lead the whole of Asia to Communism."

A National Assembly delegation called at Munsan on Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior Allied truce delegate, denounced the secret Allied plan and said the Republic of Korea Army would keep on fighting if an armistice is reached unsuitable to South Korea.

South Korea violently opposes any settlement which will leave the Korea divided and Chinese Red troops in North Korea. While this is a matter to be threshed out at a post-armistice political conference, the South Koreans are angry over some provisions of the secret plan.

Russia Abolishes Military Control In East Germany; Troop Withdrawal Indicated

Berlin, (AP)—The Russians dramatically abolished their military control over East Germany yesterday.

Germans immediately asked themselves if the next step would be withdrawal of the 300,000 Soviet troops and whether the West would then follow suit.

Moscow announced the dissolution of the Soviet Control Commission and said Vladimir Semenov, balding political expert on German affairs, would take over as "high commissioner."

Gen. Vassily Chulikov, the hero of Stalingrad who has been wearing two hats as commander of Soviet troops and as chief of the control commission in East Germany, henceforth will be limited to commanding the troops, the announcement said.

Semenov, Moscow said, will represent Russian interests in Germany, see to it that East German authorities carry out the 1945 Potsdam agreements of the four occupation powers and maintain liaison with the other occupation powers.

The immediate reaction in the West German capital at Bonn was that the Russians are imitating the Americans, British and French who relegated themselves to civilian control of the Western zones in 1949 when Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government was set up.

Gasoline Tax Law Extended

Harrisburg, (AP)—Pennsylvania's temporary two-cent a gallon tax on gasoline was extended for another two years yesterday when Gov. John S. Fine signed the measure into law.

The tax will be in effect until May 31, 1955. The commonwealth collects another three cents through a permanent tax.

The Governor also signed into law a bill to extend the state's reimbursement of the gasoline tax to farmers using the fuel in tractors and other vehicles used in producing food.

Another bill signed by Fine appropriates $156,387 from the Motor License Fund to the Department of Property and Supplies for acting as purchasing agent for the Highways Department.

Community To Observe Memorial Day

Two youngsters will have prominent roles in tomorrow's Memorial Day parade which begins at 9 a.m. in Stroudsburg and concludes at Prospect Cemetery, East Stroudsburg. In case of rain services will be held in Stroudsburg High School auditorium.

The children, Patricia Everitt, 10, and Lester Ray, 8, have been announced as winners of the Poppy Day contest for topping the sales, and will scatter flower petals from the State Bridge into Broadheads Creek honoring naval veterans who lost their lives in this nation's conflicts.

An innovation to Memorial Day programs, the ceremony at the twin-borough bridge will be one of the highlighting events in the parade which will find four musical aggregations heading divisions of veteran organizations and other groups.

Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Everitt, 723 Sarah St., Stroudsburg, won the American Legion contest, and Lester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Ray, 93 N. Third St., Stroudsburg, was the Veterans of Foreign Wars winner.

Commemoration of Memorial Day will begin at 8 a.m. At that time American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars officers will meet at the Legion monument on Washington St., East Stroudsburg.

Signalling the beginning of the day's activities, the officials will place a wreath at the base of the monument. Prayers will be recited. A firing squad will deliver full military salute.

The ceremony, almost intact, will be repeated a half-hour later at the doughboy statue in Stroudsburg's Court House Square.

On this solemn note, Memorial Day observance will begin. From this will come a full day of parades, speeches and individual remembrance.

Formation of units for the parade begins at 8:30 a.m. on Ann and William Sts. Units will move onto Main St. at 9 a.m., marching eastward to Seventh where a brief stop will be made to allow further ceremony at the doughboy statue.

The parade then proceeds to State Bridge for ceremonies, after which it moves into East Stroudsburg, up Washington St. to S. Courtland to Crystal to Brown to Prospect St.

At the grave of Charles H. Miller, Spanish-American War veteran, memorial services will be conducted. Stroudsburg attorney Joseph J. McCluskey will give the main address.

Paul V. Weary, 20th District commander of the VFW will serve as master of ceremonies. Rev. Clyde Levergood, pastor of Cherry Valley Methodist Church, will give invocation.

Massed bands of East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg High Schools, Smithfield school and the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps will play "America."

The Monroe County Joint Memorial Committee firing squad will give the salute and taps will be sounded by Victor Koch, with the echo by Robert Mosher. Rev. Levergood will offer benediction and the massed bands will play the "National Anthem."

In the line of march will be cars for Spanish American War veterans, disabled war veterans, burghesses of both boroughs and other participants in the program.

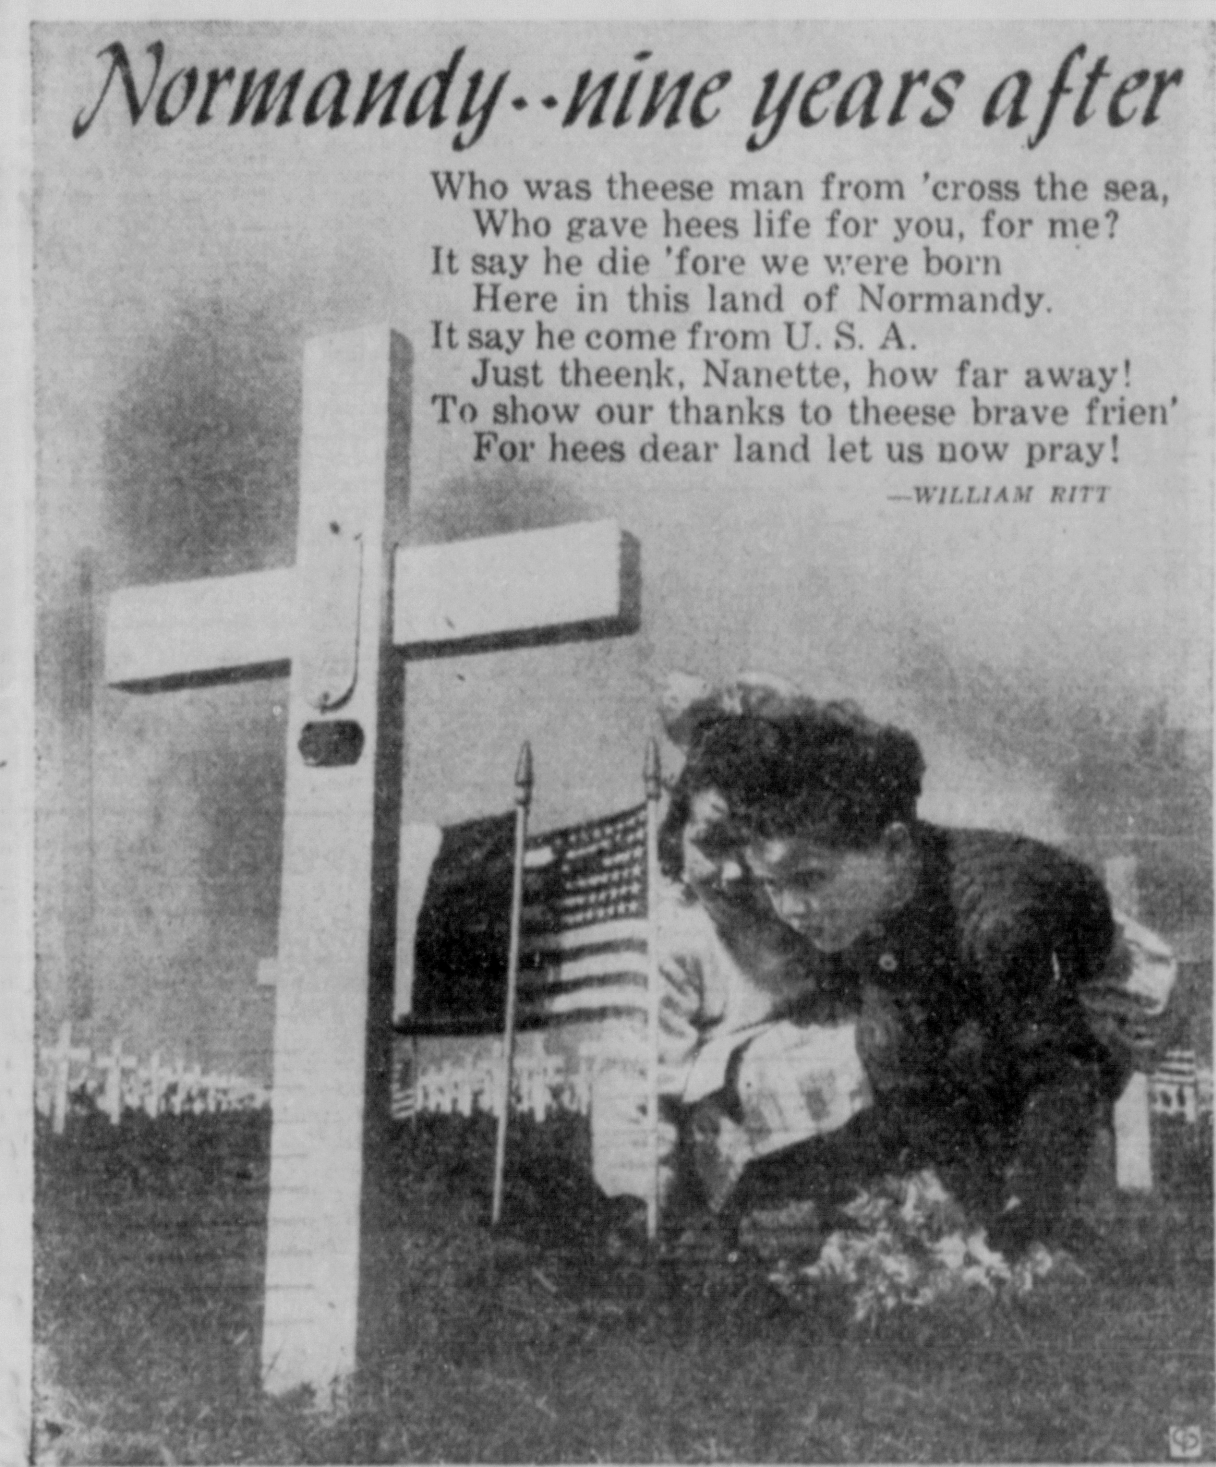

Smithfield School band will head the first division with Melvin McElwain as marshal. The unit will be composed of American Legion post members and their auxiliary, and the Ladies Auxiliary of the 28th Division.

Second division, headed by George Straka as marshal, will find the East Stroudsburg High School band, Girls Scouts and Salvation Army.

Stroudsburg High School band will lead the third division in charge of George Mosher. Units will include VFW post members and their auxiliary and the Marine Corps League and Juniors.

Harold Elsenger will lead the fourth and final division with the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps playing. Marchers will include Civil Air Patrol unit and Boy Scouts and Cubes.

Grand marshals include Howard Mount and Earl R. Palmer, co-chairmen of the program; Alfred Reisenwitz, American Legion commander; Rev. Levergood; Stanley Siproth, 28th Division commander; John Darr, VFW commander;

Tobyhanna Boy Injured; Hit By Auto

Tobyhanna — Thomas Regan, 8, of this village, was struck by a car while darting across the street here at 12:10 p.m. yesterday, Mt. Pocono State police said last night.

Driver of the car was Francis Diersprung, 16, of Mill St., Tobyhanna, police said.

The impact caused a fractured right hip, deep chin cut and body bruises to young Regan, according to police. He was given first aid by Dr. Bernard V. Hyland here, then was taken to Hahnemann Hospital at Scranton.

Police said witnesses told them the boy ran across the street suddenly after seeing some friends on the other side.

Antietam National Cemetery Crowded; No More War Dead Will Be Buried There

By A. Vernon Davis
(Central Press Correspondent)

Sharpsburg, Md.—With the approach of another Memorial Day, the people of the small town of Sharpsburg, Md., are again unfurling their flags and dusting out the bunting—preparing to refresh the memory of an often forgotten battle about the great Battle of Antietam fought there 91 years ago.

It was after this bitter, bloody struggle in the surrounding countryside in 1862 that President Abraham Lincoln decided to issue his Emancipation Proclamation, freeing the slaves.

Today the people of Sharpsburg are faced with a new problem. This year, in the face of Korean casualty lists, it was announced that Antietam National Cemetery must be closed to further burials. There is no more room.

The Historical Society of Washington county, Maryland, has gone on record in favor of quickly establishing another national cemetery, this one also to be on the flowering acres of Antietam, where the Blue and the Gray fought so savagely so long ago.

THIS BATTLE of the Blue and Gray, fought on Sept. 11, 1862, just 70 miles northwest of Washington, D. C., was the bloodiest single day of fighting ever recorded on the North American continent.

Union forces under Gen. George B. McClellan met the Confederate troops of Gen. Robert E. Lee just north of the Potomac river.

Some 130,000 men engaged in the battle. Historians are in conflict as to who won. The battle meant the holding of Southern forces from further advances north until the day of Gettysburg. Antietam is also hailed as a great heroic action on the part of the smaller Confederate forces.

It was on this battlefield, at the invitation of the people of Sharpsburg, that the present governor of Maryland, Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin, came to speak out to a world even more deeply divided now than were the states during the Civil war.

"Real peace in the world can only be obtained," said Governor McKeldin, "by replacing the philosophy of Pilate with the Prince of Peace. War, always cruel but once governed by rules, has degenerated to a state of barbarism."

"However, there is hope for the world because war has reached a stage of absurdity, and even the most heartless of the power-made rulers and war mongers do not want to be typed as absurd."

The governor explained that he believes war has become absurd because each side knows it has the power to destroy, but each also knows it, too, can be destroyed.

It is through the efforts of the people of the battlefield town of Sharpsburg that, each year, folk for miles around are called together on May 30 to recall the story of Antietam, and at the same time to mourn the men who have died in all our wars.

IN A LARGE, tree-covered cemetery, high on a hill just east of town, and overlooking the battlefield, are buried 5,000 men of the North who died there. Dominating this natural shrine is a striking monument—a colossal granite statue of a Union soldier.

This statue has been dedicated, not to the troops of the North or the soldiers of the Confederacy, but simply "To those who fought, not for themselves, but for their country."

Rows of newer gravestones have sprung up in later years. It is in this section that baskets of flowers are seen each Memorial Day, placed there by relatives and acquaintances of men who died in later struggles for freedom—World War One, World War Two, the Korean conflict.

Memories of those who died in the War Between the States are cherished through history, but personal contact with that period grows weaker with the passing of relatives and friends of those who died at Antietam.

At this time every year, the battlefield town spruces up for a long street parade and appropriate ceremonies at the national cemetery.

President Lincoln, saddened by the heavy loss of life, inspected the blood-soaked battlefield and saw the sprawled bodies of the dead who had fallen in the cause of what they thought right.

Here on this battlefield have been still other great men.

According to information relayed here, Rev. Markin had a desire to locate in the east five years ago but a fire in his church necessitated his remaining. After a rebuilding program Rev. Markin announced his intention of leaving.

Rev. Markin is expected here about June 30. It was noted that before the pastorate can be filled the call must be given to the church administrative ministerial relations committee of the Lehigh Presbytery. After acceptance, the information will be presented to the June 23 Presbytery session and the appointment will follow.

George Hauser, church elder, was selected to represent the session at the Presbytery meeting in Elberta Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Hauser will represent the congregation.

Rev. Markin's wife is related to Mrs. Oren Lesh, of Snyder'sville, it was reported.

"But ever earnestly the best gifts; and yet show I unto you a more excellent way," Paul ends the 12th chapter of this epistle. The better way is love.

"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal."

"And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing."

"Even if I give all my goods to feed the poor, or give my body to be burned, without love, it profiteth me nothing."

"Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not, and is not puffed up; doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

"Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things."

"Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away."

"When I was a child, I spake as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things," writes Paul.

Childish things are not envy, jealousy, hatred, peevishness, childish things that we should put away from us when we grow to physical adulthood? And are not these the faults we should help our children to outgrow?

"And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is Love."

Members of church congregations might well read (and reflect) on those words of Paul's, and forget their differences, settling them in love rather than aggressiveness.

Disputes between married couples might end happily if they remembered the words of Paul "Love suffereth long and is kind; doth not behave itself unseemly."

Parents who chide or punish their children would probably get better results if they too remembered that "Love never faileth."

At 7:30 p.m. the members and friends of Zion Church will unite with the churches of the community in the baccalaureate service in the high school auditorium. The minister of Zion church will preach the sermon.

Memorial Day Exercises Set For Saturday

Newfoundland — Annual Memorial Day services of the Phillips-Zacharias-Phillips Post No. 859, American Legion, will be conducted in the local high school auditorium at 11 a. m. Saturday.

Sidney Krawitz, Milford attorney and a veteran of World War II, will be the speaker. He will be introduced by Harry Bertrand, commander of the local post. Also participating will be Mrs. Robert Rochford, president of Unit No. 859, American Legion Auxiliary.

The indoor services will be preceded by a parade and a short ceremony at the flag pole at the school. A wreath will be placed in memory of local men who died in the service of their country and a salute will be fired by the post's firing squad.

The Greene-Dreher-Sterling High School band will furnish music for both the services and the parade. Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers as well as the local Legion and Auxiliary will march in the parade.

Committee in charge of arrangements is headed by Joseph Jacobs, who is being assisted by Robert Stafer and Weldon Hector. Robert Stafer will act as marshal of the parade.

Change In Church Schedule Listed
Bartonsville — A change of worship schedule for St. John's Lutheran Church was announced by Rev. John B. Bergstresser. Beginning June 7, church services will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. on alternate Sundays. Sunday School will be held every week at 10:30 a.m.

May 31, Sunday School is to be at 1:30 p.m. followed by church at 2:30 p.m.

Eckley and family, The Burlingame plan to open their summer home over the weekend.

Rev. John Bergstresser and daughter, of Hamilton Square; Mrs. Laura Manden, and Charles D. Roth, of Palmetton, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Buskirk Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mengle, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Lizzie Fetherman, of Broadheads, were Saturday supper guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wertheimer, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend with the former's father, Herbert Wertheimer, Sunday Vernon, his father and Clarence Adams, of Palmetton, went to the baseball game in Philadelphia.

Grace Church To Conduct Memorial Services Sunday
The 43 names inscribed on the service honor roll of the parish will be remembered through solemn prayer at the 11 a. m. memorial service Sunday in Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, East Stroudsburg.

One Gold Star, Charles Samuel Getz, killed in action in Korea, as well as the eight other Gold Stars, emblematic of the young men of the parish who paid the supreme sacrifice in World War II, will be remembered by pastor and congregation in tribute to their supreme contribution to our American freedoms and way of life. Rev. W. F. Wunder will preach on "Memorial Day Memories."

The 22 members and friends of the parish who died during the first four months of 1953 will also be remembered as those "who completed their course and attained the prize."

The renewed charter will be officially presented to Boy Scout

THE MOMENT OF ACHIEVEMENT

Four minutes to four by the Chapel clock. Four years of effort now crowned with success. This is the moment of achievement.

Three minutes to four. The illusion begins to fade. Here, outside the ivy-covered walls the future looms more important than the past.

Two minutes to four. A sense of fear. Can a diploma guarantee happiness through all the years to come?

One minute to four. Futility! Education can't insure happiness. Life is a succession of uncertainties.

Four solemn strokes of the Chapel clock. The Chapel clock! There is life's one Certainty... God! And with divine Love rewarding human faith, who need fear the uncertainties of life or doubt to find happiness under God.

Years of education are no substitute for minutes of spiritual searching. Diplomas are important, but the discovery of Faith is the real moment of achievement.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Onerous Package

The latest attempt to arrive at some means of taxing something in order to raise enough new money to operate the business of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during the biennium has all the earmarks of an insult to the intelligence of the voters of the State.

The hodge-podge tax package proposed by Gov. John S. Fine—the first time he has come out in the open on the garbled, leaderless fiscal problem—includes:

A $5 per capita tax on all Pennsylvanians between 21 and 65 years of age.

Ten percent amusement tax.

Five per cent hotel room occupancy tax.

Five per cent luxury tax on jewelry, furs, toilet preparations, luggage, handbags and wallets.

Increasing the four cents a pack cigaret tax to five cents.

Imposing a cent an ounce tax on smoking tobacco and cigars at the rate of a cent for those costing four cents or less, two cents for those costing between five and ten cents and three cents for those costing 11 cents or more.

A tax on three and a half per cent on gas and electric bills.

All this the Governor offers in the same breath with a 33½ million dollar cut in his fat budget—his first admission the budget can be cut.

With that admission economy can be achieved, it is time our elected officials in Harrisburg start a concentrated drive to overcome need for onerous taxes, such as a per capita tax, by an honest economy drive.

Reaction to Speed

Every motorist who has been a horrified witness to a tragic highway accident can understand Sen. John Dent's reaction to such matters, and may agree with him when he declares that the state should not permit automobiles to be operated within the commonwealth unless equipped to travel no faster than slightly in excess of the top speed limits.

There are few things more distressing than the sight of a wrecked vehicle, its occupants mangled and tossed to the roadside, and one has difficulty in denying that most of these accidents are caused by excessive speed. It has been said again and again, and properly, that the automotive industry in manufacturing the fast vehicles of the present day has outdistanced the ability of many drivers to handle such lethal machines. Each year we read of greater power packed into the fine cars being turned out in such huge numbers, and the advertising of many of them accents their ability to travel at excessively high speeds.

Senator Dent, returning to Harrisburg this week from his western Pennsylvania home, saw a turnpike accident, and was so horrified that he was determined to introduce a bill by which the top speeds of all motor vehicles should be controlled.

Said Dent: "If we cannot trust ourselves to keep within the controls of decent and safe driving, then legislation will have to do it for us."

We think he has analyzed the problem truly, but we doubt that the Legislature will have the courage to translate his solution into action, although heroic measures are obviously needed if we are to slow the awful killings on our highways. His solution is not the final one, of course, but it strikes us as a step in the right direction.

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

Voice Change

The Voice of America has decided there are millions of people who put more faith in a five-minute prayer than a ten- or twenty-year plan, and that a lot of folks needed on our side get more from the glow of a candle on a chapel altar than from a political speech, a bebop musical number, the latest figures on auto production and the wonders of an American electric deep-freeze unit. It announces that broadcasts will now have a religious content, and that the programs will have no direction by officials who get gooseflesh at the thought of mentioning a Supreme Being in a drive to win the hearts of men. For this much, thanks, America was founded and built by men and women of deep religious faith who must have been turning over in their graves at the thought that an American program for survival could approach the job in the manner of crusaders too timid to mention it. A Voice of America without faith is a song without music, a smile without warmth and a message without a signature.

You can't preach or use the "holier than thou" approach to people who need a crust of bread, but it is even crazier to think you have a better chance of impressing them if you use the routines of a Kiwanis Club orator or a used-car salesman. If you cut belief in a Supreme Being out of a message to oppressed peoples, you reduce the message to the quality of a sales pitch, a midway hollyhock and a workout by a tobacco auctioneer. Behind the Iron Curtain there are millions who put the contentment of religious faith above that of any "ism." And even in nations having a religion different than ours there is a faith in a Supreme Being. Countless among the subjects of rulers who sneer at the church, belittle religion and persecute priests are the men and women who crave the solace that comes from a flickering candle on the white altar of a city cathedral or a country chapel. They manage to talk to their God in an attic room or the dark corners of a concentration camp. They can be reached and touched more by a two-sentence picture of religious freedom than by a 5,000-word picture of production lines, Navy and Army parades, modern kitchens, feather beds and workmen's picnics. How crazy can you get when you give the world all the data on Miss America contests, prosperity, Bing Crosby, Eddie Fisher and the American "dream house" and leave out the family altar, the crowded church, and the young couple at the font for the baptism of their first baby?

The trouble with the Voice of America has been throat-scratch. It tried to get everything into the message except the picture of the family on its knees in prayer, the temple bell, the plover man bowing his head at Angelus hour, the good book and the stable at Bethlehem. Its message has had the glow of a wet match in a windy room. Its slogan has seemed to be "Don't tune out; we promise not to touch your heart." But it now appears to realize that a top-mystery weapon is the mystery of faith and devotion. Better late than never.

"Slim" Lindbergh's story of his Paris flight a quarter-century ago is one of the most dramatic yarns we have ever read. Beautiful wordage, too. . . . As for instance, this passage when Lindbergh, holding his eyes open with his thumbs in the struggle to stay awake, thought: "I'm leaning against my father's side. I hear the clump of horses' hoofs and the crunch of wheels on a sandy road. My mother rolls me up in the driving-robe and lays me softly in the folded carriage hood. She sings softly. . . . One of TV's top entertainments is the Frankie Frisch baseball program. . . . The Fordham Flash, who knows baseball inside out, and whose guests are similarly qualified, gets an off-the-cuff happy-go-lucky mood into the interviews. . . . And not even Ring Lardner ever made baseball stories funnier. . . . Script of recent gabfest between Frisch, "Jocko" Conlon and "Dizzy" Dean might well be the envy of all comedy-hour script writers. . . . Peron has seized the Argentine Jockey Club. . . . He now offers a choice of racing colors, red, red or red. . . . A New York cop who hid the fact he once belonged to the Communist Party has been fired from a flickering candle on the white altar of a city cathedral or a country chapel. They manage to talk to their God in an attic room or the dark corners of a concentration camp. They can be reached and touched more by a two-sentence picture of religious freedom than by a 5,000-word picture of production lines, Navy and Army parades, modern

MEMORIAL DAY REMINDER

Robert S. Allen Reports

Watchdog Commission To Attack Red Asia Menace

Washington — A new attack is being mounted against the steadily growing menace of Red violence and aggression throughout Southeast Asia.

The momentous blow will be struck in the U. N. Security Council. Early in June, formal demand will be made that a special session of the Council be convened for the purpose of establishing a "Watchdog" Commission to safeguard against further upheavals in the Red-peril strategic region.

Thailand, whose conquest is a known Communist aim, will ask for the emergency meeting. This move will have the full support of the U. S., which took the lead in formulating this far-reaching showdown with the Kremlin. Top State Department and Pentagon officials participated in the planning.

Also, the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been informed of what is contemplated.

This was done by Acting Secretary of State W. Bedell Smith. He described the forthcoming challenge as, "Part of our diplomatic counter-offensive against the Communists' plot to seize and subjugate Southeast Asia."

The proposed commission would be similar to those set up by the U. N. in Red-invaded Greece and South Korea. Those two agencies were major factors in mobilizing world opinion and action against the Communist aggressors. The body sent to Korea acted as a subgroup of the U. N. Peace Observation Commission that was created in November 1950 as a direct outgrowth of the Red assaults on Greece and South Korea.

The "Watchdog" proposal for Southeast Asia is a compromise between the widely divergent stands of France and Thailand. When the Communist Vietnamese recently invaded Laos, Thailand, directly endangered by this aggression, wanted to bring the outrage before the U. N. The U. S. heartily approved of this, but France strenuously objected. To avert a serious split in allied ranks, the U. S. finally evolved the "Watchdog" compromise, which both France and Thailand have accepted.

The latter, also, was agreed on to raise the issue in the U. N.

Russia is one of the 11 nations comprising the Security Council. That gives the Kremlin the power to use the veto to block Council action. The allies are ready for that contingency.

If it happens, they will immediately take the issue to the U. N. General Assembly.

Note: The Senate Foreign Relations Committee will participate in the peace conference that would follow a Korean truce. The Committee was given that promise by Acting Secretary of State Smith when Senators William Knowland (R-Calif.) and Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) vigorously objected to the key provision of the latest U. S. armistice offer under which the U. N. would have final say on the disposition of prisoners of war who do not want to return to their Red-ruled homelands. The two Senators dropped their protest when Smith proposed the Committee will be represented in an advisory capacity at a post-truce peace conference.

No More Stalling — U. S. Attorneys throughout the country have received an order that is bad news for conscientious objectors.

Henceforth, their cases are to be tried without delay. No longer can they gain lengthy deferments by starting suits to prevent being drafted by local boards. Under the new order, federal prosecutors will speed up the handling of these cases for the express purpose of blocking protracted C. O. deferments. This crackdown was brought about by Assistant Attorney General J. Lee Rankin.

Following a thorough study of the matter, the forceful Nebraska brought it up at a staff conference held by Attorney General Herbert Brownell.

"I have discovered an extremely undesirable situation in regard to conscientious objectors," Rankin reported. "I have found a backlog of around 1,000 of these cases. Unless we take vigorous action to dispose of them, and to handle speedily the new ones that are constantly developing, it is possible a great deal of public criticism may arise."

"What is the cause of these cases?" asked Brownell. Rankin explained they are due to conscientious objectors, bringing legal action against draft boards that reject their claims for exemption from military service.

"In many cases these suits get these people deferments for six months and longer because of failure to try them promptly," said Rankin. "It's a reflection on the Justice Department that that sort of thing is happening. We shouldn't permit it. We should do everything in our power to put an end to deferments of any kind."

"I agree with you completely," replied Brownell. "We should do everything possible to dispose of these cases promptly and decisively. I'll send out such an order to all U. S. Attorneys at once."

Rankin has also been given additional assistance to insure speedy disposal of these cases.

Missouri, in 1812, was the first state west of the Mississippi river to be admitted to the Union.

The Library of Congress in Washington, D. C., contains more than 700,000 maps.

These are vexing times indeed for the Italian people. Neighbor Tito of Yugoslavia is talking tough to them over Trieste. And there's a big national election coming up in Italy in June.

That nation has so many squabbling political parties it hardly seems fitting to call it by the old name of "Sunny Italy."

As the Italian taxpayer comes to bat he can hit to any field—there are political parties of the Left, Center and Right.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi, running for re-election, has the backing of the Center parties—Christian Democrats, Republicans, Liberal and anti-Communist Social Democrats. This ought to make him a four-way choice.

Bermuda Meeting of Three Powers In June Face American Dollar Problem

The Three-Power Conference When the heads of state of the Three Great Powers meet in Bermuda in the middle of June, they will not limit their discussions to the Korean War.

The biggest problem they will face is the dollar—the American dollar.

The British do not regard the Korean War as a war. To them it is a limited military action, as the American marines used to practice in Nicaragua and Haiti and such places. They have a similar problem in Malaya as the French have in Indo-China. So far as they are concerned, Korea should not interfere with the restoration of trade, so that the British can accumulate sufficient dollars to set themselves economically free from the United States.

Last December, leaders of the British Commonwealth met to discuss precisely this problem and they came up with the slogan, "Trade Not Aid." The Commonwealth financial leaders agreed to increase the production of food, raw materials and industrial commodities in the entire Commonwealth with the object of increasing the dollar earnings of the sterling-using countries. They hope to reduce imports from the United States in order to decrease the outgo of American dollars.

In a word, the British want to increase the amount of dollars that come into their area, which can only be accomplished by exporting more goods to the United States and importing less from the United States.

While most Americans think in terms of aid for many countries and while we are still fiddling away on such subjects as Point Four and Mutual Assistance, the British, the French, the Mexicans, the Japanese want to go back to trade. Actually, surprising developments are taking place in this good old-fashioned field, as, for instance, the important trading position developed by Mexico and the return of Japan to world markets. The British find that our development in the Korean War imperils their position as traders.

And he it noted that trade has a very small conscience. It will flow wherever it can earn a profit even at the cost of lives. All countries want to trade with China and Russia and grow antagonistic because the United States is interfering with good markets.

The British sent their smartest economist, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Richard Butler, to the United States to discuss this problem with the Eisenhower Administration. One of the British objectives is the establishment of price arrangements with the United States so that we shall sell wheat, cotton, etc., at lower prices, while we buy rubber, wool, tin and jute at high prices, thus providing a hidden aid.

Further, they wish to have our tariffs lowered. In this respect, they have already put on a remarkable propaganda effort, using great American names and important American organizations to support their effort. Some American businesses could go out of existence should this British effort succeed, but there are those who favor even that because it seems to them that the British need aid and this is a good way to give it to them.

Then the British also want a huge fund established, amounting to billions of dollars, to stabilize the British pound sterling, so that it can more readily be converted into dollars. Such a fund could pump American dollars out of our reserves at Fort Knox into the European and Asiatic markets via London.

This program has many sides and American banks and some business firms can make money out of it. Thus far, Congress has taken no position and the Eisenhower Administration has fixed no policy on these questions. Should they come before Congress in some practical form, they could create political havoc.

These economic questions will have to be discussed at Bermuda, because European, South American and Japanese public opinion is putting tremendous pressures upon their governments to open the lanes of trade. And both the Russians and the Chinese have ample exchange to meet their financial obligations when they buy goods.

The real fear of the British is that continued nagging of America will prove to be so irritating that it could well produce such a revulsion as to result in a "Buy American" sentiment, which could reach the dimensions of a boycott of their goods in this, their best market. It is generally held in Europe that Eisenhower's popularity remains sufficiently potent to put their program over if he supports it.

S.H.S.—There were 116 graduates at S.H.S.—11 in service and many others ready to join up when school closes. Attorney Elmer Christine presented the awards to students. William Weber was named outstanding athlete. Miss Sarah Sox was awarded a $25 war bond as an outstanding student. Awards also were given to Lyndy D. Genung, Miss Eleanor Field, Richard Hammond, Albert De Renzis, Doris Setzer, Howard Quig, May Seip, Jean Sullivan, Alice Hinton, Jean Owens, Eric I. Anderson.

Pocono II, S.—The class night program was outstanding, the setting a garden scene with gorgeous flowers. The cast: Betty Warner, Glenn Bishop, Betty McCoy, Eleanor Westcott, Betty Kresge, Marge Woodling, Doris Hillard, Carolyn Miller, Lloyd Sebring, Grace Post, June De Haven, Florence Neyhart, Shirley Starner, Lorna Bowman, Walter Sebring, Jr., Mark Bloss, Austin Coco, Class night advisor was Miss Elizabeth Moser; stage manager, Miss Norma Henry; pianist, Clair Hardensine.

The Reds in Rome, we read, are pasting their political posters all over ancient ruins and religious statues, including that of St. Peter. We'd say this is about as sure a way to lose an election as can be found.

END OF THE ROAD for car shown above came after East Stroudsburg police chased its driver, Calvin Kunkle, Snyder'sville, through streets Thursday morning. Driver rounded corner at Second and Third St. junction, Stroudsburg, lost control of car, smashed into fence and fuel oil line. Firemen were called to prevent outbreak of fire. Kunkle and owner of the car appeared at hearing last night.

Blazing Shed Extinguished By Firemen

A blazing shed sent firemen and several hundred spectators running last night to the rear of 719 Monroe St., Stroudsburg.

Trucks roared out of the firehouse on Sarah St. about 10 p.m., barreled down Seventh to Main, swung right on Main and pulled up. Hose lines were run in along the alley between the P&L office and the Montgomery Ward store and turned on the frame shed.

Other lines were run in from Court House Square and Monroe Street.

As soon as the powerful streams hit the shed the flames disappeared. The fire was out in a few minutes. From preliminary inspection it looked as though the frame shed was virtually destroyed.

Standing in her backyard at 719 Monroe St., Molly Cramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cramsey, watched the excitement and said there wasn't anything in her family's half of the shed.

Yes there was, prompted a friend—a lawnmower and the children's bicycles.

There were also odds and ends stored in the other half of the shed, used by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nevil, 721 Monroe St.

The shed is owned by the landlord, Ralph Bishig, 1062 W. Main St., Stroudsburg.

Police Chase Ends As Car Crashes Into Fuel Oil Tank

East Stroudsburg police were led on a wild chase early yesterday which wound up with two Hamilton Township youths wrecking their car in Stroudsburg.

Before the action ended, fuel oil was flowing on a Stroudsburg street and the Stroudsburg fire company was called into action to flush the oil-sprayed street.

As a result, preliminary charges of excessive speed, reckless driving and disorderly conduct have been filed against Calvin Kunkle, 19, Snyder'sville.

He pleaded guilty at arraignment last night before Justice of the Peace Marshall H. Neyhart in East Stroudsburg, and was freed on his own recognizance pending further court action.

He will appear again at the justice's office Tuesday night, with his companion on the escape, Lewis G. Berwick, 19, Saylorsburg, who was owner of the car and a passenger in it at the time.

Berwick also was freed on his own recognizance.

The incident started at 1:15 a.m. while the gates were down at Milford Crossing of the DL&W in East Stroudsburg.

Two tractor-trailers were pulled up waiting to get through. Watching were Officers Louis Caramella and James Smith.

The car driven by Kunkle passed the trucks on the right but the gate was still down. The car hit a service pole, backed up, hit one of the trucks—causing only minor damage—then swung around, police said.

Caramella and Smith gave chase in their squad car. Kunkle pulled up an alley at rear of Cramer Lumber Co., driving a bumpy route along the railroad track.

Police later picked up the chase again near the State bridge, followed the car on a screaming ride to the intersection of N. Second and Third Sts. There Kunkle lost control. The car crashed into the fuel storage tank of the Sinclair Refining Co. Oil from the pipe spouted in the road.

Berwick stayed in the car and was taken in custody as police pulled up. Kunkle scrambled over a fence and ran, police said. His identity was established and he later was called to the police station.

Mount Pocono Cuts School Tax 8 Mills

District's Indebtedness Liquidated

Mount Pocono school directors cut eight mills of borough property taxation this week.

At a meeting in the school building, the board decided to lower the millage rate from 35 mills per thousand dollars in assessed value to 27 mills.

Lowering of the millage rate was made possible through clearing away of the school district's bonded indebtedness and loans on its elementary building, a spokesman for the board said.

It was decided to retain the $5 per capita tax as it now stands.

The reduction in millage puts Mount Pocono back into easy breathing range within the limitations of State rules governing the amount of millage legally allowed. Top millage allowable, according to State, is 35 mills.

Borough school directors elected Jennie Battisto, treasurer and William Hines, secretary at the meeting. Applications for positions as third and fourth grade teachers were opened.

Directors then adopted a $28,211 budget for the 1953-54 school year. By divisions of expense this allows the following totals: General control, $1704; expense of instruction, $17,465; auxiliary agencies, $3,800; plant operation, $2,567; plant maintenance, $1,200; fixed charges, $475; capital outlay, $1,000.

Announcement was made at the meeting that the school board approved opening of a supervised playground at the elementary grounds for June 15. Mrs. Jeanette Walker is president of the board.

To Give Concert

The Little Orchestra Society of Monroe County will give a concert tonight at 8 at the Inn, Buck Hill Falls.

Soloist will be Earl F. Groner. Orchestra is directed by Thomas H. Knepp.

Stroudsburg School Board Adopts Budget

A budget for the 1953-54 school term was adopted at a special meeting of Stroudsburg school directors yesterday. It calls for 33 mills, a regular $5 per capita and a $5 per capita tax under Act 481.

Rate of taxation are exactly the same as last year.

The budget outline, previously announced, calls for receipts and expenditures of $380,488.99.

Directors named Warren Loney secretary for four years starting July 1.

Norman O. Bender was elected treasurer for one year starting July 1.

Col. Morrison Addresses Coolbaugh High Graduates

Tolyhanna—Lt. Col. Thomas E. Morrison, deputy commanding officer of the Signal Corps Depot here, delivered the commencement address last night for Coolbaugh High School seniors.

Morrison chose "The Signal Corps and Modern Warfare" as his theme for the speech, during which he stressed the importance of communications and electronics.

Tracing the history of communications from the smoke signal to the radio signal, Morrison told the graduates, "Congress can make a general—but it takes communications to make a commander."

The school orchestra played a procession and recessional, directed by Miss Elsie Braxton. Rev. George J. Jordan gave the invocation.

Fire Destroys Storage Shed

A frame building used to store supplies was destroyed by fire at 12:15 p. m. yesterday in the rear of 125 N. First St., Stroudsburg. Owned by George H. Taylor, the building contained garden and mechanics tools, produce baskets and fishing tackle. Dense smoke hovered over the area while Stroudsburg firemen poured water into the building. A garage located next door felt the effect as flames jumped across a narrow passageway, but little damage resulted here. Taylor said last night the building was fully insured but could not estimate the total loss.

BARBARA BARBER, June bride-to-be, is shown unwrapping a gift at the shower given in her honor at the Hamblin home in Swiftwater on Wednesday night. The guests are listed below.

Miss Barber Is Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Barbara Barber, who is to become the bride of Jerry Muys on June 6, was the guest of honor at a surprise shower held Wednesday night at the home of Miss Shirley Hamblin, Swiftwater. Miss Justine Newhart and Miss Millie Vosgreen were hostesses.

There were two large hearts intertwined bearing the names of the couple, and an umbrella decorated in the colors planned for the bridal procession. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Guests included Miss Jenene Zugel, Mrs. Robert Tucker, Mrs. Robert Shields, Mrs. Hayden Schultz, Mrs. Robert Stenlake, Shirley Toms, Mrs. Naomi Barber and Mrs. Harry Hamblin.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Violet Muys, Mrs. Sherman Sickler, Marie Fisher and Mrs. Joseph Tiech.

Class Of '38 SHS Reunion On June 13

The Class of 1938, Stroudsburg High School, has scheduled an informal reunion for June 13 at the Bartonville Hotel at 7:30. The idea of the reunion came with the return of Major Jay LaVan from Japan.

Major LaVan was made a member of the committee which also includes Mrs. William Wells, Mrs. John Sibley and Mrs. Richard Fredenberg. They plan to contact the class members as soon as possible.

Glen Brook Clubwomen To Open Season

Glen Brook clubwomen will open the new season with a luncheon on Thursday, June 4, at the club house. Mrs. Grant Nitzner is president of the club.

The golf clinic is listed for 10:30 a.m. with luncheon to be served at 12:15. During the afternoon there will be cards and a golf tournament.

Reservations must be made with the club by June 2.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

When you see a scarlet tanager and a Baltimore oriole in the same pear tree and then flush out a blue bird from the grape vine, you have enough colors to make a rainbow all your own.

And a rainbow is what we could use, if only to keep us warm from these fall breezes that somehow wandered into spring. Got a special order in for this weekend though. Sunshine, of course, but with a heavy dew on Friday night to keep the cut flowers fresh on the graves, and help the geraniums get rooted.

Cool enough Saturday morning to make band uniforms comfortable, but good and hot on Saturday afternoon. Repeat that for Sunday, please.

Memorial Day. Each year, it seems just a little anti-climactic. The real memory-provoking time comes a day or two before when the families make their way to the graveyards. To clip the grass around the headstone, set their flowers on the gentle mound. To borrow the watering can from the family working up the hill.

Squatting there, digging and clipping, is when you remember again the familiar smile, recall for the children how dearly they had been loved, and feel that ever present regret that the one whose name is on the stone couldn't see how tall and strong they've grown.

That's your Memorial Day.

THE WHEELER FAMILY of Arlington, Va. is the way this picture is captioned in the current issue of the Ladies Home Journal. In it local friends recognize Shirley Baierle-Price Wheeler, formerly of Stroudsburg, and her children.

Former Resident In 'Political Pilgrim's Progress'

Losing an election is not ordinarily the way to get your picture in a national magazine, but it worked that way for Mrs. Shirley Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Price of Washington St., East Stroudsburg.

The picture together with a statement by Mrs. Wheeler is a feature of "They Make Their Voices Heard" in the Public Affairs Department of the June Ladies Home Journal, and concerns the activities of "reorganizing in defeat" in Arlington County where Mrs. Wheeler is an elected member of the Democratic County Committee.

The subhead above the articles reads "Busy women everywhere agree: Participating in politics is the long-term way of looking after your children." and to illustrate the point Mrs. Wheeler is pictured with her three children: Christopher, 12; Linda, 10; and Robin Virginia, 2. Also in the picture are the family dog, Blaze, and the cat.

Paradise PTA Sees History In Pantomime

Swiftwater — A review in pantomime of the study of "Our Own United States," under direction of Miss Audrey Hamblin, teacher, was the presentation of the fourth and fifth grades at the meeting of the Paradise Parent-Teachers Association at the school, Monday night. About ninety people attended this final meeting of the season, and the attendance prize for parent representation went to Miss Hamblin's room.

With narration by Richard Bowman, each step in the study covered during the year was depicted by different characters and scenery, and accompanied by appropriate songs of a patriotic nature. The cast: Indian — Bob Storm; Daniel Boone — Larry Hardy; Lewis and Clark — Tommy Schneider and Roy Ross; covered wagon — Mary Lou Lillius, Alvin Wescott, and Bruce Counterman; Buffalo Bill — Billy Drake; cowboy — Wayne Stiff; G. Washington — Thomas Lindstedt; Abe Lincoln — Bob Wescott; Betty Ross — Kathleen Williams; Columbia — Frances Ostrander; flag court — Linda Fretz, Nancy DePue, Sandra Baer, Brenda Coffman, Diane Nelson, and Lois Nauman; scenery changers — Bruce Counterman, Billy Triano, Alvin Wescott and Bob Storm; story writers — Kathleen Williams, Larry Hardy, Bob Storm, Tommy Schneider and Billy Drake; screens — Roy Ross, Bob Wescott and Larry Hardy.

Following the play, George Hahn showed colored slides of the inauguration; and refreshments were served in the cafeteria by Mrs. Ralph Hollister, Mrs. Sara Carlton, and Mrs. Russell Shick.

The business part of the meeting preceded the program, and was brief. Officers elected were: President — Mrs. David Nelson; vice pres. — Carl Hamblin; sec. — Mrs. Charles DePue; asst. sec. — Mrs. Harry Neiring; treasurer — Mrs. Lillius.

A report on last week's bake sale showed a substantial amount for the treasury. Mrs. Nelson announced the receipt of the 100% attendance certificate, the Gold Seal and Gold Leaf awards.

August Bazaar Is Planned By Rosary Society

Tannersville — The regular monthly meeting of the Altar and Rosary Society of Our Lady of Victory Church was held on Thursday night, May 14, in the church auditorium.

Wedding At St. Rocco's

Bangor. Miss Anita Louise DeAngelo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dino DeAngelo, of Martins Creek, and Samuel J. Villori, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Villari, Easton, were married on Sunday, May 24 with a nuptial mass at 10:30 a. m. at St. Rocco's Roman Catholic church.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and palms, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Rosario Sciarone. Miss Diana Karabinus was organist and Miss Gild DeAnnunzio was vocalist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was trimmed with pearl drops, and the Bouffant skirt ended in a short train with tulle insets. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms. Calla lilies and stephanotis formed her bouquet.

The maid of honor was Miss Teresa Baratta of Martins Creek, who wore a gown of mint green lace and nylon tulle with a matching picture hat, and carried a colonial bouquet of tinted arcadias.

The bridesmaids: Miss Dolores Kummer, of Easton, Miss Marie Citrone, Miss Mary Buschi, Miss Maria Pia Rapali and JoAnn Piergellini, junior bridesmaid, all wore pale blue gowns and matching picture hat. Jo Ann Piergellini, junior bridesmaid was in mint green.

Paul Fazzini was best man and the ushers were Paul Enik, Alfonso Morello, Albert Serebo and Frank Bubbala.

A reception was held in the Moose Hall auditorium, Easton, before the bride and bridegroom left for a honeymoon in the Poconos. They will reside temporarily in Martins Creek.

The bride was graduated from Easton Catholic High School in 1948 and from Churchman Business College in 1950 and before her marriage was employed by the Pennsylvania Power and Light Construction Co. Mr. Villari was graduated from Easton High School in 1948, served 4 years in the U. S. Navy. He is employed by the Metropolitan Edison Co.

Buzzards To Mark 17th Anniversary

Delaware Water Gap — Saturday, May 30, is the seventeenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buzzard. The former Miss Mildred Manhart, of East Stroudsburg, and Herbert Buzzard, of Water Gap, were married in East Stroudsburg in the Grace Lutheran Church by the Rev. J. S. Kistler.

Mr. Buzzard has completed twelve years in the employ of the Empire Box Co. of Water Gap and is also a cabinet maker. Mrs. Buzzard is a violinist in the Water Gap orchestra. She initiated and edited and mimeographed the monthly magazine for Water Gap service men during World War Two, "The Home Front."

Recently Mrs. Buzzard completed a long term of service as church secretary and as leader for the Youth Fellowship in the Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Buzzard have one daughter, Camille.

Guild at Girards

St. Mary's Guild of Christ Episcopal Church will meet Tuesday at the home of the Misses Amee and Lucie Girard, Bryant St., Stroudsburg.

I suppose we all like to be thanked once in awhile, even if we were only carrying out normal, routine business, courtesy in the course of our good deed. Well, I've been thanked by four Sears executives—both Manager Henry Kresge and Assistant Manager James Somers—for the recent radio program and columns, and their thanks is deeply appreciated because they climbed four flights of stairs to express it. Somehow one likes to see people of that caliber win awards!

I don't know why the word "truffe" always confuses me, but it does. I associate it with railroad bridges rather than candy departments—goodness knows why. The delicious sweet given me by Pauline Marsh the other day should help to impress the word on my mind, however. These truffes, selling for $1.50 a pound, are creamy and delightful—and rolled in bitter-sweet cocoa powder . . . Caramel nougats at $1.20 a pound are super too! Do you know why I'm writing about candy this minute? It's six o'clock, I'm hungry, and a pound of either would disappear in a nothing flat! I wonder if Bill Deering appreciated my efforts last Saturday evening when I stood down by the toy department and played Brahms' Lullaby for him on that dear little piano finished in walnut? It sells for $12.50, and has sharps and flats. Someday soon I must go down and try out "Chop Sticks" and "Kitten on the Keys" . . . Peter Pan and Tinker Bell dolls at $1.79, would delight the heart of almost any imaginative little girl. But my personal choice would be the Roddy walking dolls, made in England, selling for only 98c. A real bargain . . . To a chemist, or even a bright kindergarten student, there may be nothing puzzling about those magi-color drip candles. But they mystify and intrigue me. Plain white, they drip many "flameboyant" colors as they burn away—and I'm consumed with curiosity as to how it's accomplished . . . Less puzzling, but practical too, are the modern Will and Baumer Patilites, which can be as mundane as you please, or can do honor as a centerpiece or sideboard ornament. These are grand for the porch or outdoor sitting room . . . Wonder how I happened to speak of dolls back there without mentioning those truly exquisite toys from Italy, priced at less than $5 and up to $22-something. My favorite is the little lady in the $18.95 class, with a blue velvet hat and coat, and the sweetest face imaginable. These Italian importations have real hair and thick lashes. What's more, many of them roll their eyes from side to side. Even a tomboy would adore these. Fact is, there's a tomboy doll, with blonde hair scooped high and left dangling in a pony tail. This one wears a sloppy grey sweater and a pair of dungarees . . . Sillylyte glass makes an inexpensive gift as appropriate to the new bride as to one 25-years wed. . . It won't rinse, tarnish, or be marred by alcohol or flame, and there are some unusual styles in ash trays and incidental dishes, priced at $1 . . .

This, being the day before a holiday, we will be open until 9 o'clock. We invite you to visit Wyckoff's, both for buying and just plain looking. The strangers in our midst this weekend are most heartily welcomed—and to everyone, we wish a weekend of rest and memory, happy and carefree even though the treasured echoes of the past may be poignant.

Pocono A. C. Deadlocks Martins Creek, 2-2

Play Halted After Sixth By Darkness

Two runs in the home half of the sixth inning enabled Pocono A. C. to tie Martins Creek at 2-2 before darkness engulfed East Stroudsburg Playground last night and halted play short of the regulation distance. No date has been set for replay of the contest.

A booming triple to right field by John "Juice" Arnst, a single by Manager Bill Frear, a third straight walk to Bill Johnson and an error by Martins Creek shortstop Mike Franciosa, on Redge Flanagan's roller enabled the home team to tie what appeared to be a hopeless cause only a few moments later.

Bill "Bump" Metzger had trouble in the second frame, when the hardworking southpaw pitcher issued one walk, which coupled with three errors resulted in two runs for the Martins Creek contingent.

Other than the second, Metzger pitched brilliant baseball, retiring 11 veteran batters on strikes and giving up only two hits, a double and single, neither of which figured in the scoring.

Bill Holland, the 1949 winner, was picked on two ballots and Sam Hanks got two votes.

Vukovich and Agabashian received five votes each in informal voting among members of the 100-Mile-an-Hour Club, exclusive organization of men who have finished in the "500" at speeds over 100.

Bill Holland, the 1949 winner, was picked on two ballots and Sam Hanks got two votes.

The winners' club also guessed at the driving speed, with estimates ranging from 127.7 by Louis Meyer, three-time winner of the race to a now builds racing engines, to a fat 131.4 by Jimmy Bryan, who finished sixth last year.

The lineup of fans at speedway gates were growing steadily yesterday although they can't get in until 5 a. m. (EDT) Saturday, six hours before the race. The lines will be miles long by then.

The annual cluster at the gates is mostly the 53 customers who need reserved seats who hope to find infield parking spots with a view of a piece of the two and one-half mile track. There also will be a rush for 10,000 unreserved bleacher seats at $5 each.

Reserved seats, about 75,000 of them, were sold out months ago. Carnival attractions outside the speedway grounds, part of the atmosphere that has made the race a sort of automotive folk festival, are already beginning to harvest quarters and half-dollars.

Three Schools Show Interest

Washington, G.P.—Three schools have "shown interest" in joining the new edition of the Southern Conference, President Max Farrington reported yesterday.

No Applications
None of the three has filed a formal application, Farrington said, adding that it is possible applications may come in by the time the Southern Conference holds its June 27 meeting at Roanoke, Va.

Farrington named the three schools at East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, N. C.; Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C.; and Florida State University, Tallahassee, Fla.

Redlegs Tie Cardinals, 10-10

Cincinnati, G.P.—The Cincinnati Redlegs came from behind three different times last night to eke out a 10-10 tie with the St. Louis Cardinals in 10 innings. The game was called after the 10th to allow the Cards to catch a train.

Big Blow
Jim Greengrass' bases filled two-run single left the Redlegs to tie the count in the last of the 10th.

Never Over
Furgol never went over par, playing Bellevue's rolling 6,574 yards as successfully as he covered the hilly fairways of the Davenport, Ia., Country Club where he won the 1951 Western.

Art Wall, Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., and only three years a professional, was third after the first round with a 69, the only other golfer among the 137 entries to beat par.

Furgol, playing out of Lemont, Ill., duplicated Haas' 34-34 card with two birdies to earn the tie.

Dodgers, Yankees Decision Rivals

Giants Bow On Noble's Play, 7-6

Brooklyn (AP)—Catcher Ray Noble muffed a third strike allowing "Peewee" Reese to reach first base in the 10th inning and later was guilty of a passed ball permitting Reese to score with the run that broke a tie and gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7-6 triumph over the New York Giants yesterday.

Relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm was the victim. The knuckleball artist was touched in the seventh for a home run by pinch hitter Wayne Elard, a single by Reese and "Duke" Snider's triple which pulled the Dodgers even at six.

In the fatal 10th, after Reese raced to first, Snider, in a sacrifice attempt, bunted to third. But "Hank" Thompson's hurried throw to second pulled Alvin Dark off the base and all hands were safe. Wilhelm, apparently unnerfed, uncorked a wild pitch, advancing both runners. That necessitated an intentional pass to Jackie Robinson to load the bases.

Passed Ball
The count on Roy Campanella was 2-2 when Wilhelm threw an inside pitch, a knuckler, that glanced off Noble's mitt and rolled toward the Giants' dugout. Reese came tearing off third and easily beat Noble's throw to the plate.

Besides his triple, Snider hammered his eighth homer of the season with a runner on base in the first inning. Gil Hodges' first double of the year highlighted a two-run Dodger fourth.

The Giants only long hit was a home run by "Tookie" Gilbert in the fifth.

Seixas Reaches French Finals

Paris (AP)—Vic Seixas, America's second-ranked star, upset defending titleholder Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, 6-3, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, yesterday to gain the finals of the French International tennis championships.

The wiry, 29-year-old Philadelphia native will meet Ken Rosewall, Australia's brilliant 18-year-old boy wonder, for the title today.

Rosewall, who took the measure of Seixas in both the U.S. and Australian championships in the past year, outlasted powerful Enrique Morea of Argentina, 2-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-6, 6-2.

Women
The women's final will bring on another meeting between Maureen Connolly, the U.S. and Wimbledon queen from San Diego, Calif., and wily Doris Hart of Cornwall, Fla.

Little Mo, making her first bid for the French crown, eliminated Mrs. Dorothy Head Knobe of Alameda, Calif., 6-3, 6-3. Miss Hart, second ranked to Maureen in the U.S., was given a terrific battle by her close friend and doubles partner, Shirley Fry of Akron, O., before she won, 8-6, 6-4.

Browns Trip Indians, 7-5

St. Louis, G.P.—Bob Elliott's grand slam home run and some expert relief pitching by Satchel Paige helped Dick Littlefield and the St. Louis Browns defeat the Cleveland Indians, 7-5, last night to give the Browns a sweep of the two-game series.

Elliott's blow came in the fifth with Bill Hunter, Johnny Groh and Vic Wertz, all on base via walks, crossing the plate ahead of him to break a 2-2 tie.

First Start
Dave Hoskins, making his first start of the season, drew the loss. The homer and a first-inning single which also batted in a run gave the St. Louis third baseman 3,998 hits for his major league career. Elliott also grounded out in the seventh with Littlefield scoring.

Stroudsburg Speedway To Present Holiday Feature

Racing fans will be treated to an added Memorial Day feature at Stroudsburg Speedway tomorrow night, when at least 10 sports cars will be present at the half-mile "dustless" track located next to the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg Airport.

The sports cars will be an added attraction on the regular stock car program that gets underway at 8:30 p.m.

Included on the list of sports cars will be a couple of Jaguars, MGs, Riley Specials and Sunbeam Talbots.

The regular stock car program will be made up of the usual five events and will be run under a permanent lighting system constructed this week.

Many of the same drivers who helped to open the 1953 season at the local track will be included in tomorrow's field. Liberty Stock Car Association, sponsoring unit of all races at Stroudsburg Speedway, Nazareth and Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium, has promised between 40 and 50 drivers for tomorrow's show.

Harry Charles, Easton, will be seeking his second straight feature win at the local track, while the remainder of the field will be out to change the order of finish this week.

Included in the large array of talent will be such star performers as Ray Fleming, Bethlehem; Jerry Eagle, Allentown; "Smokes" Denger, Reading; Joe Cryan, Oxford, N. J.; the Mushitz, Bethlehem; Fred Fehr, Easton, and many other well known stock car pilots.

Stroudsburg Speedway will present stock car racing every Saturday night this summer, weather permitting.

There is plenty of free parking available.

Jack's Market, Eagles Win In County Softball League

Jack's Market and the Eagles were comfortable victors in the Monroe County Softball League last night, winning over Union Printers and Shaffer's Inn respectively.

The Eagles moved toward Monday's showdown with IAM by blasting Shaffer's Inn, 18-1. The Eagles scored in every inning except the second, "Dipe" Lessig homered.

Porterfield's Victory Streak Ends, 7-2

New York (AP)—Bob Porterfield's five-game winning streak was snapped by the New York Yankees yesterday, 7-2, as "Whitey" Ford checked Washington with five hits.

Ford pitched brilliant ball after giving up a home run to Wayne Terwilliger in the first inning. That was the only Washington hit until Eddie Fitz Gerald led off the eighth with a single.

Irv Noren tripled to drive in Ford and Billy Martin with the first Yankee run pair in the fifth. The Yanks batted around and started over with 10 hitters in the sixth to score the big bundle of five, all off Porterfield.

Opens Frame
Gene Woodling opened the big sixth with a single and "Yogi" Berra walked. With one out, Phil Rizzuto singled. The ball hit umpire "Hank" Soar on the leg. The ball was in play as the umpire was stationed behind the infield, but the best the Yanks could do was load the bases.

Ford came through with a single scoring Woodling and Berra. Martin's looping single to center drove in Rizzuto to make it 5-1.

After Noren walked to fill the bases again, Mickey Mantle dribbled a single off Terwilliger's glove scoring both Ford and Martin.

Mickey Vernon went hitless in four trips, breaking his 20-game consecutive hitting streak.

Senior Stars Clash On Track

New York (AP)—A group of speedy seniors who have been making track history throughout their college careers will take their final shots at some of the most coveted titles and records in track and field in the intercollegiate AAAA championships today and tomorrow.

Champions
This meet, the 77th outdoor affair staged by America's oldest track and field organization, will bring out some 500 athletes from 51 colleges, including the champions of five conferences.

Selections
It was decided at a meeting of the league last night, at the Monroe County YMCA, to select teams next Tuesday, and open the season on Tuesday, June 16.

The opening day program will feature a parade from the Penn-Stroud Hotel to the field and Mayor Hal H. Harris will throw out the first ball. The parade is listed for 5:30 p.m.

All teams will be in uniform for Tag Day on Thursday, June 18. The week of June 8 has been set aside for practice sessions, all to be held in the morning. Security Trust will drill on Monday; Penn-Stroud on Tuesday; Peoples Coal on Thursday, and First National Bank on Friday. The Minor League, made up of youngsters between the ages of eight and 12, not able to make one of the teams mentioned above, will practice on Wednesday of the same week.

Luck Plays Major Part

Indianapolis, G.P.—Racing cars get more stomach aches than thoroughbred horses, says veteran driver Fred Agabashian, and luck is a much bigger factor in the 500-mile speedway than in the Kentucky Derby.

Fenty Gains Verdict
Newark, N. J. (AP)—Bobby Fenty, 135, New York, took the first seven rounds to outpoint Jimmy Watkins Jr., 138½, New London, Conn., in a feature eight-round bout at Laurel Garden last night.

A's Inflict First Loss On Parnell

Philadelphia (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics sent Mel Parnell down to his first defeat yesterday after six straight victories. It was the first time they've beaten the Boston Red Sox right-handed since April 20, 1951. Tommy Umpflett's ninth inning home run was the only Sox run off rookie Mario Franco who tossed a steady five hits to win, 6 to 1.

Scoring
Parnell, who in his major league career has beaten the Athletics 19 times against only four defeats, was hit hard in two big three run innings by the winners. He came undone in the third when Dave Philley walked, stole second and scored on Cass Michaels' single.

After Joe Astroth popped for the second out, Franco singled, scoring Michaels and sending Eddie McGhee to third. Eddie Joost singled home McGhee.

The Athletics erupted again in the sixth after two were out. Joost singled, Pete Suder was safe on an error, Eddie Robinson doubled home two and scored himself a minute later on Gus Zernial's booming triple to center.

OUT—Mike Franciosa, Martins Creek shortstop, is pictured above far short of first base in the initial inning, as John "Juice" Arnst, Pocono A. C. first baseman, turns from making the putout to throw the ball around the infield. The two teams battled to a 2-2 tie when the game was halted by darkness after six innings of play.

Co-Favorites Selected By Drivers At Indianapolis

Indianapolis, G.P.—Twenty veteran Indianapolis motor speedway drivers have picked Bill Vukovich and Freddie Agabashian as co-favorites in the 37th annual 500-mile race Saturday.

The uncertainty of auto racing was reflected in the poll.

Vukovich and Agabashian received five votes each in informal voting among members of the 100-Mile-an-Hour Club, exclusive organization of men who have finished in the "500" at speeds over 100.

Bill Holland, the 1949 winner, was picked on two ballots and Sam Hanks got two votes.

The rest of the opinions were scattered among Johnnie Parsons, 1950 winner; Art Cross, Ernie Mc Coy, Paul Russo and Duke Nelson. It may be significant that only McCoy of the six first-time starters was picked to win. If he comes through, he will be the sixth rookie to win in 37 Memorial Day races.

The winners' club also guessed at the driving speed, with estimates ranging from 127.7 by Louis Meyer, three-time winner of the race to a now builds racing engines, to a fat 131.4 by Jimmy Bryan, who finished sixth last year.

The lineup of fans at speedway gates were growing steadily yesterday although they can't get in until 5 a. m. (EDT) Saturday, six hours before the race. The lines will be miles long by then.

The annual cluster at the gates is mostly the 53 customers who need reserved seats who hope to find infield parking spots with a view of a piece of the two and one-half mile track. There also will be a rush for 10,000 unreserved bleacher seats at $5 each.

Reserved seats, about 75,000 of them, were sold out months ago. Carnival attractions outside the speedway grounds, part of the atmosphere that has made the race a sort of automotive folk festival, are already beginning to harvest quarters and half-dollars.

Grid Circuit Asks Delay

Philadelphia (AP)—The National Football League and 11 member teams yesterday asked U. S. District Court to delay the government's suit against the league pending outcome of an anti-trust action against professional baseball.

Suit
The federal suit against professional baseball and its reserve clause is now pending before the U. S. Supreme Court in Washington. The reserve clause holds that a player signed by a club is that club's property until released or otherwise disposed of.

In the anti-trust action against the football league, the government contends that the NFL violated the Sherman Act by regulating the radio and television coverage of its games, giving each team jurisdiction over a territory ranging out 75 miles from the club's home city.

Minor League Baseball

Eastern League
Schenectady 6-6, Williamsport 1-4. Reading 11, Elmira 4. Binghamton 2, Wilkes-Barre 0. Albany at Scranton, (cold weather).

International League
Buffalo 4, Syracuse 2. Rochester 3, Toronto 2. Ottawa 4, Springfield 2. (14 innings). Montreal 6, Baltimore 3.

Pocono Manor Pro Third In Western Open

St. Louis, G.P.—Marty Furgol, a past champion, and Freddie Haas, who plays only the major tournaments these days, belittled Bellevue Country Club's demanding course yesterday with two-under par 68 for the first round lead in the 50th Western Open Golf Tournament.

Haas, a New Orleans pro, came up with three consecutive birdies in the mid-round for a 34-34 that chopped a stroke off par on both the front and back nines.

Furgol, playing out of Lemont, Ill., duplicated Haas' 34-34 card with two birdies to earn the tie.

Never Over
Furgol never went over par, playing Bellevue's rolling 6,574 yards as successfully as he covered the hilly fairways of the Davenport, Ia., Country Club where he won the 1951 Western.

Art Wall, Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., and only three years a professional, was third after the first round with a 69, the only other golfer among the 137 entries to beat par.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

George Condrick, winter resident of Tannersville, received a nice bit of publicity for the fine pitching job he turned in for Rochester, International League, over Springfield recently. This column mentioned the 3-1 victory for George the other day, but George Beahon, writer for the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, really went all out for Condrick's work. It was only the second complete game turned in by a Rochester pitcher this season. George retired the Springfield hitters in order from the second through the seventh inning.

Condrick, who began his pitching career with the Stroudsburg Poconos, of the now defunct North Atlantic League, in 1948 is known as the "Polish Falcon" in Rochester. Barry Transue, who played baseball with Portland, Blue Mountain League; Bangor American Legion and who was graduated from East Stroudsburg High School, is now a resident of Savannah, Ga. Barry formerly lived in Portland.

Leon Alberts, former football and baseball star at East Stroudsburg High School, is home on leave from the Air Corps, from Scott Field, Ill. Alberts has been asked to try out for a catching position on the Scott Field baseball team when he reports back to duty. Dick Schaller, former slugging first baseman at Stroudsburg High, is also home on leave from the Army and is scheduled to report for duty in Alaska when he reports back to active duty.

Schaller held down first base for Pocono A. C., of the Blue Mountain League, for the past two seasons prior to entering the Army last January. Both Schaller and Alberts were spectators at last night's Pocono A. C. clash with Martins Creek, at East Stroudsburg Playground. Although two players, one regular and a substitute, have quit the ranks of Pocono A. C., the club had 10 players on hand for last night's game and will have even more available for Sunday's clash with Johnsonville.

Speaking of Johnsonville brings to mind the fact that Johnsonville's 2-2 victory over Portland on Thursday was the biggest upset of the young 1953 Blue Mountain League campaign. Nine Portland errors proved fatal to the cause and to Dick Shuster, Stroudsburg High student making his initial Blue Mountain League pitching start of the present season. Coach Dave Thomas caused plenty of surprise among Bangor baseball fans when he chose Blaine Seiple to pitch for Bangor High against Nazareth in Wednesday's Lehigh-Northampton League playoff tussle at Pen Argyl's Weona Park.

Most people thought that the starting hurler would be either Bob Egbert or Rodney Taylor, although either Taylor or Egbert would have been ready for Portland, if the Staters had been able to pass Nazareth. Nazareth and Parkland clash at Coplay today, at 4 p. m. Bangor had taken the measure of Nazareth twice this season, before bowing to the same club when the championship chips were down. One concession stand has been enclosed at Stroudsburg Speedway, as the local half-mile automobile racing track continues to make at least one improvement each week.

Those people who saw the Irish Horan show at Stroudsburg Speedway last year will no doubt remember the cannon event. At least one of the men being shot out of the cannon this year will be now, as one of last year's stars was killed in the event, about three weeks after the Horan show was here. Ben Cardoni, pilot of the Hazleton entry in the North Atlantic League for a portion of the 1949 campaign, was recently purchased by Scranton from Albany, both of the Eastern League. Ben, a veteran right handed pitcher, blanked his old mates, 1-0, in his first outing for the Miners.

West End A.C. Wins Over Delaware Water Gap, 10-1

Gilbert—West End A. C., an entry in the Pocono Mountains League, defeated Delaware Water Gap in an exhibition baseball game here last night, 10-1, on the winning contingent's home field.

Manager Al Conklin pitched his charges to the easy victory, giving up the lone run in the second inning while hurling hitless ball.

Pocono Mountains League To Play Ten Games

Two Slates To Be Played Over Weekend

Pocono Mountains League baseball fans will have plenty of action this weekend, with no fewer than 10 games scheduled to be played in two days. On each occasion the game is scheduled to get underway at 2 p. m.

The Memorial Day slate will feature Lake Harmony putting its undefeated record on the line against Tannersville, at Lake Harmony.

A four-way tie for second place will at least be reduced during the present weekend battles. Barrett will battle West End A. C. at Gilbert, while Kunkletown and Tobyhanna clash at Pocono Pines. Saylorburg will invade Reeders and Bushkill will tangle with Ansonia at Henryville, Sunday.

Five more contests are on the agenda for Sunday, with Ansonia invading Kunkletown and Bushkill playing at Barrett, while Lake Harmony and Tobyhanna tangle at Pocono Pines.

Reeders and Tannersville renew their old rivalry on the latter's home field and West End A. C. plays at Saylorburg.

Bill Sommers will pitch for Bushkill tomorrow and Harry Caulfield will do the hurling for the same team on Sunday. The Bushkill club is slated to practice today at 5:30 p. m. and will leave for Henryville from the East Stroudsburg railroad station tomorrow, at 1 p. m.

Seranton Club May Quit

Seranton (AP) — Those old devils of baseball—poor attendance, bad weather and a cellar dwelling team—may be ample reason for Seranton to pull out of the Eastern League.

The club's directors will get together next Monday and decide the issue.

President Thomas H. Richardson of the Eastern League said he had not been officially notified of the Seranton problem but he added:

Statement
"If Seranton decides not to carry on, I won't be too disturbed for I believe we could put the team in Allentown or Lancaster. Those cities are within the territorial rights of the Eastern League. Allentown and Lancaster were in the class 'B' Interstate League cities until the league folded this spring when Allentown was unable to enter a team."

Roseto Signs Three Players

Roseto — Three players were added to the Roseto A.A. roster last night, as the top team in the Blue Mountain League bolsters its roster for the long grind ahead.

Bangor Stars
Two of the new additions are former Bangor High stars. The two Bangor High stalwarts are George Dalesandro, an outfielder, and Joe D'Imperio, a catcher. Roseto also announced the addition of Joe Christison, a pitcher. The Roseto club will practice today, at 2 p. m.

No Balls—No Game

Ward Displays Championship Golf In Wins Over Two Opponents In British Amateur

By Sterling Slappey
Hoylake, England, (AP) — Harvey Ward went on another spree of blazing hot championship golf yesterday, blasting two avowed opponents from the British Amateur Championship.

He went into the quarter-final round by lopsided margins to become the only American in the last eight.

Ward turned first on English International Alan Turner in the morning round and skated home seven and six. Then the good-looking Georgian manhandled Guy Wolstenholme, five and three, in the sixth round.

Medal scores by the 27-year-old defending champion from Atlanta on this cruel 7,078-yard Hoylake course would do credit to any golfer.

On Ward rests America's hope of keeping the coveted, big silver trophy. Six other American hopes fell yesterday.

Big Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., one of the tournament's most popular and best golfers, lost on the 19th hole to Ireland's Cecil Beamish this morning when he "suddenly lost coordination" in his hands. That's the way the giant blond described what happened to him on the 18th when he missed a two-foot putt which would have given him the match.

Extra Hole
Beamish took the extra hole for victory.

Five other Americans fared this way in the fifth round—Dale Buettner, Toledo, lost to Major Melville Bucher, Scotland, on the 23rd; Ernest Arend, Deal, N. J., lost to Dixon Rawlinson, England, four and three; Harold Ridgely, Philadelphia, lost to Ian Caldwell, England, one up; Bob Sweeney, Palm Beach, Fla., lost to Roy MacGregor, Scotland, on the 19th; and Major J. F. Seals, of New Haven, Conn., and Charlotte, N. C., who is stationed at Wiesbaden, Germany, lost to Wolstenholme, three and one.

Only Ward and Joe Carr among the remaining players are considered in the top class of international golfers. Carr, a lanky good-natured Irishman from Dublin who hits a drive as far as Sam Snead and Ben Hogan, won late yesterday, beating Major Bucher on the 19th hole. Carr topped the draw going into the quarter-finals and Ward brings in the rear. Thus a Carr-Ward 36-hole final Saturday looks to be a good bet.

Phillies Edge Pirates In Wild Contest, 9-8

Pittsburgh, (AP) — Big Jim Konstanty, the Philadelphia Phillies' 36-year-old righthander, survived three Pittsburgh Pirates uprising yesterday and managed to wobble to a 9-8 win for his fourth victory of the year.

The Pirates collected 15 hits off Konstanty while the Phillies banged out 13 off four Pittsburgh pitchers, including Tom Glaviano's first homer of the year with one aboard.

Tigers Sign Camilli's Son

Detroit, (AP) — The Detroit Tigers yesterday signed Richard Camilli, 20, of Santa Rosa, Calif., son of the one-time major league star, Dolf Camilli.

Follows Dad

Young Camilli, who has played at Santa Clara College in California, has followed his father's footsteps in that he is a first baseman. The elder Camilli played in the National League from the early 1930s to the mid-1940s.

Second baseman Danny O'Connell committed two costly errors to help the Phillies grab the three-game series, 2-1. The Phillies also suffered lapses in the field, committing four errors—two of them by leftfielder Del Ennis.

Attack
Every Phil in the lineup collected at least one bingle except catcher Stan Lopata, Connie Ryan, Richie Ashburn, Ennis, Earl Torgeson, Granny Hammer and Konstanty each collected two hits. Ennis batted in his first run since May 19.

Southpaw Paul LaPalme, the Pirate starter, was charged with his fourth loss. Johnny Hetki, Elroy Face and Bob Friend all saw action.

Catcher Joe Garagiola of the Pirates pulled a muscle in his right side while batting in the fifth inning and was forced to leave the game.

Hotels, Tourist Homes Watch With Interest Progress Of Bill Levying Tax On Occupants

A bill designed to collect revenue for budget-befuddled State government by taxing occupants of rooms in hotels, inns, motels and tourist homes has been introduced in Harrisburg.

Man behind the bill is Rep. Hewitt, Indiana Republican. Hewitt calls his bill "The Hotel Occupancy Tax Act."

It's referred to as H-1344, meaning House Bill 1344.

Amount of the occupancy levy is set by Hewitt at five percent of the rate for the room.

For this reason most hotel owners in the Poconos—Pennsylvania's largest resort region—will probably refer to it as the "H Bill." In their case the "H" stands for "headache."

The biggest monkey wrench in the deal is this: Nearly all resort hotels operate on the "American plan." This system does not charge a flat rate for the room.

The occupant pays his money, instead, for the room, his meals and in most larger hotels—for the gratuities or "tips" which are paid to the waiters, porters, bell hops and other employees of the inn.

So how does the average Pocono hotel owner figure the rate of the room rent alone? Nobody in Harrisburg has figured that one out, yet.

One thing is certain. It'll take a while of a lot of figuring on the part of the owner.

Executive secretary of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce and the Vacation Bureau, Jacob Wachtman, thinks it would take "quite a bit of time" to arrive at a base figure on room charges for American plan hotels.

The bill, Wachtman feels, will be taken up in discussion by the Vacation Bureau. This bureau, in turn, will probably appoint a special committee to look into the problems involved in such a bill. There are ways, Wachtman says, of estimating the amount of revenue which might be gained from such a tax. But nobody could possibly estimate the headaches.

As a rough estimate, Wachtman says, there are between 15,000 and 18,000 beds in the area. Of these, approximately three-fourths would be occupied during the season.

An average rate in the neighborhood of $8 would be charged. There are about 120 days in the summer season, although resorts are open longer.

Figured on the basis of 16,000 beds in use at $8 each for 120 days, this means that income from the rooms would be $15,560,000 for the summer.

From this total the State's five percent would be about $778,000.

Rep. Hewitt has taken into consideration the amount of time, bookkeeping and brainwork necessary to maintain records for this tax. The hotel owner's staff, of course, would have that responsibility.

So, says Mr. Hewitt's bill, the innkeeper should be allowed to keep three percent of the total tax he has collected.

This means that hotel owners collected the $778,000 in taxes, they would be allowed to retain $23,340 for themselves.

Rep. Hewitt's bill insists that the tax is to be levied against the consumer or occupant. It is not to be paid by the hotel owner.

All the hotel owner has to pay, according to Hewitt's bill, is his own time and the time of his staff in figuring out, collecting and forwarding to the State a levy against its customers—one which most customers seem destined to dislike.

Taxes due under the bill would be paid in quarterly installments. The bill has been referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

In the meantime, local hotelkeepers and the Pennsylvania Hotel Association seem certain to watch the bill with more than passing interest.

That $23,340 total which could be passed back to the hotelman sounds like a substantial amount of aspirin money. But they'll need it, if the bill goes through.

Wayne County Man Found Dead In Home

Cortez, Pa. — A 73-year-old Wayne County man was found dead yesterday at 10 a.m. in the one-room shack where he lived alone here.

He was identified as Charles Frisbie. His body was discovered slumped on the floor of his shack after he had apparently collapsed in a chair, by a bakery truck driver, Joseph Clemo, Cortez.

Mr. Clemo reportedly was delivering a pie which the elderly pensioner had ordered when he found Mr. Frisbie dead. State Police of the Honesdale Substation and Wayne County Coroner Fred Holbert were notified. Mr. Frisbie is survived by two brothers, Grover, Cortez, and Noah, Newfoundland, and one sister, Alice, Avoy, Pa.

What are you doing, mister?

Putting a telephone cable under ground.

What's a telephone cable?

It's a lot of wires in one.

But aren't those a lot of wires, too?

They'll be taken down when the cable's in.

Why?

Because this cable will carry more messages than all those wires put together. Gives less trouble, too. Storms can't get at it.

That's neat. Did you think up the idea?

No, Son. But telephone people are always trying to find better ways to do things.

Why?

Better ways to do things help us give people better telephone service and keep costs down.

ARTHRITIS PAINS GONE!

Statement by Mr. Robert H. McKee, 838 Jordan St., Allentown, Pa.
I am 76 years old and had arthritis in my legs, arms and shoulders. I could not dress myself, nor walk without a cane. I could not sleep at night because of the pain. I saw the ad in the paper about Crown Hill Mineral Water, wrote in and took it. Now, after taking it for 7 weeks, my pain is gone. I sleep nights, I dress myself and no longer use a cane—all thanks to Crown Hill Mineral Water.

Weather Factor Looms Large As Resorts Launch Season

By James B. Gaffney

Tomorrow's opener of the 1953 Resort League season has fans and players alike in a dither, wondering what type of ball will be played this year.

There's a question at this time whether Jupiter Pluvius or Helios will toe the mound rubber for the inaugural.

James B. Gaffney has reignited long brightened.

enough during the Spring training, opine many resort operators. It's high time he puts away his water bottle and hangs up his spikes.

On the other hand Helios has seen little action this season and the summer hotel owners are hoping his layoff will mean a stronger throwing arm come opening day, and subsequent games during the 94-day season.

This year's Pocono line-up sports some new faces, all bent on a good freshman year. Sophomores in the circuit are anxious for a fresh start; some did well with their batting average in '52, while others struck-out practically every time they approached the pentagon.

But the veterans who have been hit by fast pitches, walked many times, struck out on some occasions and batted near the 400 mark in other years, are taking this season with the proverbial grain—"it's a sure bet" they say.

From behind the plate Umpire Jake Wachtman of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau and Chamber of Commerce barks "batter up" and adds "the outlook is bright and economics are fine with many planning for their vacation."

Wachtman comments that inquires at his office have been steady and show a firmer approach to visiting the ball park than in previous years. The weather, of course, will determine the gate receipts, he states.

On many fields in the loop the diamond is almost ready. Intermittent rains have hampered progress at stadiums where the owners contemplated added bleachers, new dug-outs and remodeled quarters.

The turf also has taken a beating to the saturation point, and the grass which is getting greener, also is getting higher, forcing caretakers to work overtime.

Whatever the season's outcome, faithful fans have many threats in store on their return to the engagements. Approaches to the stadium are being improved annually and new construction has deposited additional patrons in the area, many of whom are expected to join in the Poconos season for their first time.

It's up to the starting hurlers now to decide how successful the opening game is. Pluvius should have an ailing arm after all his early season pitching, and Helios is rarin' to go. From our box seat

U. S. PROPAGANDA FILMS A FARCE

Paris, he says, is the mecca for "thousands of propagandists selling a creed that ours is the land of milk, honey and money—the latter free for the asking."

At the ultrafashionable 26 Bis Rue Francois Premier, 110 people are employed in the Technical Films Program. "They make films to teach thrifty, successful French farmers how to do a better job. But most of these people know nothing about farming themselves."

The U. S. Information Service branch in Paris, located in Baron Rothchild's former mansion, is the world's plushiest. It lends U. S. films, "an unnecessary activity in which 50 persons are engaged."

"Their work is duplicated, even triplicated, by other agencies. The M.S.A. maintains several hundred payrollers to interpret the Marshall Plan. They produce films to try to convince foreigners to accept our money."

Such efforts in France and Britain are a waste of time, Castle insists. Most of their people are on our side, anyway.

"Since Hollywood dominates the world's screens, why do we pay these characters to make films they'll play from a sound truck in the middle of a field?"

It's the same all over the world, Castle quoted from "The Korea Story," by John Caldwell, a former U. S. Information Officer, who once asked for an education film and was sent something called UCLA, about one of our largest, best-equipped schools.

"We had to show it to Korean students who studied all winter in barnlike unheated buildings with no textbooks, no laboratory equipment," wrote Caldwell.

"It was not right to show the film in Korea, nor was it right to show New York's Peter Stuyvesant Village as an example of how to solve a housing problem.

"These films present an advanced technology hardly within the dream, much less the practical reach, of a large percentage of the world's population. Koreans happen to be a polite people and they did not often point this out. The Communists did it for them."

Castle had hoped the Republicans "would end this foolishness. No administration, either Republican or Democratic, can balance the budget until we cut needless expenses. As long as the budget remains unbalanced, we're living dangerously. The Reds count on us."

But, Castle reports, the State Department has come up with a new scheme "to waste money."

Now, it wants to make films "in the Hollywood manner."

He referred to a recent comedy of errors which began when the Screen Directors Guild announced that 28 directors had been "drafted" to make U. S. films at a $550 minimum weekly salary. The State Department denied it. The Guild denied the denial. Then, the Department said it was all a "misunderstanding."

"But it wasn't," says Castle. "In April, Cecil B. DeMille was named a Department consultant. Returning to Hollywood, the producer conferred with film executives and the Guild announcement followed."

But why the denial? "The Department was embarrassed by the premature disclosure."

sure. They knew there would be questioning on the Hill. They're scared of an investigation."

Castle, however, is heading for Washington to insist on one. "I hope that great American, Mr. DeMille, will join me. He must know that no movie studio would invest a dollar in a propaganda film. 'Message' films have all laid box-office eggs."

"For 50 years we've sold our movies abroad more successfully than anyone else. Our propaganda-free entertainment is accepted, enjoyed and loved by people everywhere. And it doesn't cost the taxpayer a cent."

"Hollywood does more good for us abroad than propaganda films making us the laughing stock of the world, as in Korea."

WHERE CARTIER LANDED

MORE THAN 400 years ago, the French navigator Jacques Cartier, scudding before a threatening storm, took refuge in a deep bay on whose shore the village of Gaspé now stands in the southeastern section of Canada's Quebec province. This vacation season, thousands of Americans will "invade" this Gaspé peninsula, within whose boundaries could be easily fitted the states of Vermont and New Hampshire. Let's take a quick tour around this vacation spot without leaving our armchairs. On Bonaventure island off the coast is one of the largest bird sanctuaries for gannets. Stop off at one of the houses in Gaspé to watch the women work their hand looms to make rugs known the world over. A look across the peninsula shows the native fishermen shoving off in their small boats. Down a dusty road comes a farmer with his cart drawn by oxen, much as it was centuries ago. And now, as they say in the movie travelogues, we leave this enchanting land on the shores of colorful old Quebec.

This granite cross commemorates the spot where Jacques Cartier landed on Gaspé peninsula.

Old French customs live on in Gaspé in an era that the machine age seems to have skipped.

Y Announces Arrangements For Day Camp

Monroe County YMCA directors this week completed plans for transporting boys to the Y's Day Camp this summer.

Following the program of previous seasons, the camp will be conducted at Saylor's Lake. The first of two periods extends from June 22 to July 3; the second from July 13 to July 24, both inclusive.

At the close of each period, the boys will be taken on a day's outing to Hershey. Also included is one overnight camp-out and a one-day mountain fishing trip.

John R. Wilson, general secretary of the Y, said a total of 80 boys will be accommodated, 40 during each period. They will leave the Y at 9 a. m. and return at 5 p. m. each day excepting Saturday and Sunday.

A fee of $12.50 per boy will include insurance in case of accident or illness, craft materials, camp shirt and transportation. Lunches must be provided by the boy. Present registrations are encouraging, Wilson said.

The program includes crafts and hobbies, swimming and diving, nature study, Indian lore, sports and athletics, boat handling and numerous other skills.

President Dayton W. Frankland named these committees:

Constitution and by-laws: Earl Groner, chairman; A. W. Williams, Merle C. Ostrom, Rev. Frank H. Blatt, Mrs. W. R. Toewe and Jesse Flory.

Budget, project and location: Thomas Kistler, chairman; Ted Hoffman, M. S. Baldwin, J. A. Groner, F. L. Stackhouse and Clifford Gillam.

Directors in attendance at the meeting in addition to President Frankland were: J. A. Groner, F. L. Stackhouse, R. M. Houser, Jesse Flory, Holt Wyckoff, Earl Groner, M. S. Baldwin, Rev. F. H. Blatt, Thomas Kistler, A. F. Everett and General Secretary Wilson.

Progress is being made in the preparations for the main building facing Main St. The steel is in place ready for pouring concrete for the floor of the basement.

Prince Charles To Play Host

London (AP)—Prince Charles, four-year-old heir apparent to the British throne, will throw a coronation party for his playmates at Buckingham Palace June 2 while the royal groupings are at Westminster Abbey.

Part of the time he will be host in absentia. He will slip off to the Abbey around noon to be present at the actual moment when his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, is crowned. Then he will return to the palace to join the others at luncheon, with ice cream as a special treat.

Mrs. William Clugston

Mrs. Minnie Lesoine was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cramer and family a couple of days last week.

Herbert Schantz, of Trenton, N. J., was at his summer home over the weekend. His wife is visiting in Virginia for a few days.

Saturday night a gathering was held at the home of Mrs. Minnie Lesoine. Present were Mr. Schantz, Frank Schering, Mrs. Carmen Macaroni and Mr. and Mrs. William Clugston.

The Carmen Macaroni family spent the weekend at Forest Cottage making preparations for their opening in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stuart, Mrs. Stuart's mother, and a brother-in-law and sister, were at the Birchies over the weekend.

Herbert Schantz Jr., whose parents now have a summer home in the locality, has been attending Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, taking a course in mechanical engineering. He was recently notified he had received the scholarship award in the scientific warfare contest in which he participated.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Smith, of Stroudsburg, visited Mrs. Minnie Lesoine last Sunday night.

Bartonsville

Mrs. John Cummings
Phone 3680-R-2

Harry Pifer is now at home in Bartonsville convalescing satisfactorily from two recent operations.

Joy Cummings took part in the majorette baton twirling number of the Shirley Schwartz Dance Studio program presented Thursday night, May 21, at East Stroudsburg Junior High School, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, Judy, Jackie Cummings and Nancy Canfield enjoyed the recital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Starner of Snyder'sville recently spent a day visiting the Richard Metzgars.

Prizes were presented to Mrs. Daisy Alleger, Mrs. Charles Hane, Mrs. George Metzgar, Mrs. Sally Harps, and Mr. Samuel Dunbar.

"We did it, we finally saw them tonight, at exactly 10:00 o'clock," the Gerald Canfields were both exuberant about the big coincidence they have been hoping would happen sometime. The facts came tumbling out and fell into an amazing pattern.

Both Canfields are fans of the "Bride and Groom" TV program. Daily they watch a couple get married and receive fabulous gifts, including the use of a car and a week's vacation at some luxury spot, sometimes in the Poconos.

May 21, Thursday, the young marrieds were to honeymoon at Merry Hill Lodge. Peggy Canfield admonished her husband to be on the lookout for their car passing and proceeded about her chores, with one half of her mind on the highway. Suddenly at 10:00 Canfield was shouting, "Come on up, they're here!" She rushed heading from the house to their service station at the intersection of routes 611 and 12, dropping a dish towel en route and met the same Mr. and Mrs. Beetle (she believed the name) who had repeated their vows at noon in New York TV Studio. "You were married this morning!" Canfield had said spontaneously when the groom had appeared suddenly in the station to inquire the way to Merry Hill Lodge. "Yes, how did you know?" he wondered, recalling suddenly that his knees had been knocking and his forehead perspiring not so long previously. The bride asked if the Canfields had noticed that she merely went through the motions of putting a ring on her husband's finger, in the absence of the gold band which the best man had nervously dropped at the critical moment. They promised to stop by to say hello at the end of their honeymoon, and it will be a thrilling moment all over again for the Canfields.

Two fifty-second wedding anniversaries were observed this month by couples who have been friends these many years. They are Mr. and Mrs. Stewart White, who were married May 8, 1901 and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walters who have been wedded since May 23, 1901.

Although the couples were feted at the silver wedding dinner and open house party in 1950 given by son and daughter-in-law of the Whites, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde White, who themselves celebrated a 25th wedding anniversary April 30, they marked the occasion quietly this year by visiting with each other.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lee always mark their wedding anniversary the same day as the Clyde Whites, usually by dining together, and visiting each other.

Miss Cripps To Wed Negro Law Student

London, (AP) — Enid Margaret (Peggy) Cripps, youngest daughter of the late Sir Stafford Cripps, announced yesterday her forthcoming marriage "for love" to Joseph Appiah, Negro law student and son of a Gold Coast tribal leader.

Miss Cripps, a tall, buxom, brown haired woman of 32, made the announcement jointly with her small, bespectacled fiance, at a news conference in the studio of British artist Felix Topolski.

Appiah, who received part of his education in England and is the personal representative of the Gold Coast Prime Minister in Britain, smilingly declined to give his exact age.

"In my country," he said, "a man's age is always his own secret."

Miss Cripps, however, interrupted to say "Joe is about my age."

Peggy is the daughter of one of the most distinguished men in recent British public life. Her father, who died in 1952, was member of the British Labor government, a leader in the Christian church and a distinguished lawyer. He was the chancellor of the Exchequer in the Attlee Labor government.

The couple said they first met at an African Students Union party in London nearly two years ago.

"It wasn't quite love at first sight," Miss Cripps said, "it came later, but it came definitely."

Asked if they plan to raise a family, Miss Cripps smiled and said "well, if possible . . ."

Appiah quickly broke in to say: "Oh, certainly we will. In my country, a family is very important."

Both Miss Cripps and Appiah said their families approved of the marriage.

"My mother, Lady Cripps, will most certainly attend our wedding in London in July," said Miss Cripps.

Styled for the stars of Hollywood and YOU

For the popular "little girl" look . . . Catalina features fashion as well as flattery. Catalina gives you swim suits with soft bloomer-band legs. Elasticized for perfect fit. Cotton seersucker.

A devastating little Jantzen suit, deceptively simple. It's that marvelous Stay-Bra, fully-lined for comfort, with pliant stays. In beautiful Sun Taffeta. 12.95

25.00

It's a Saony specialty—the gently feminine suit, strictly man-tailored to stay in shape four seasons a year, for years. Note the flattering curves . . . high-curved collar, scooped-in waist. In Palm Beach, wrinkle-shedding blend of rayon, acetate and wool. Seen in LIFE, in VOGUE and here.

Saony

"top excitement"
waistbender 12.95

Emphasis is on top! That means your waistline is played down to its very smallest, and it's not all illusion. The clever, flexible "cinch" waistband helps . . . and makes your dress fit perfectly, without a single alteration. All this in Saony Ciella, wonderful acetate jersey that washes, and never, never sags, stretches, or holds a wrinkle. In LIFE, and here, Misses' and petite sizes. It's a wonderful buy!
